

Sookhee Jeong

hwannhee@hanmail.net

www.galleriesofenglish.weebly.com

Education

Colorado State University
Fort Collins, CO

M.A. in Teaching English as a Foreign/Second Language (TEFL/TESL) (GPA: 3.96)
January 2012 - present (Expected graduation: December, 2013)

Ajou University
Suwon, Korea

M. A. in English Education (GPA 4.25)
Thesis: A Study on Teaching English Using Songs.
March 1999 - February 2001

Korea National University of Education
Cheongwon, Korea

B.A in German Education, with a Minor in English Education (GPA 3.89)
March 1989 - February 1993

Relevant Coursework

- Intercultural Rhetoric
- Bilingualism in TESOL
- Phonology/Morphology-ESL/EFL
- Syntax for ESL/EFL
- Teaching English as a Foreign/Second Language
- Emotion, Culture and Rhetoric
- Second Language Assessment
- Classroom-based Research in TESL/TEFL
- Supervised College Teaching-ESL
- Theories of Foreign/Second Language Learning

Teaching Experience

English Teacher at Paikyung High School Goyang, Korea. 2008 -2011

- taught practical English conversation focusing on speaking and writing with a native speaker teacher to grade 11
- taught how to use Facebook and Twitter for enhancing daily English usage and regularly monitoring writing
- created an English club for students who want to make an English film

English Teacher at Yeonhyeon Middle School, Anyang, Korea. 2004-2008

- taught listening, reading, speaking and writing lessons to grade 8 and speaking was with a native English speaking teacher

- created an English club for students who prepared to take the TOEIC test

English Teacher at Seohyeon Middle School, Seongnam, Korea. 1997-2004

- taught listening, reading, speaking and writing for grades 7-9
- designed creative classroom activities such as making an English magazine, advertisements according to each class' level and class size

English Teacher at Moga Middle School, Icheon, Korea. 1993-1996

- taught listening, reading, speaking and writing lessons to grades 7-9
- developed teaching plans using songs to motivate students

Relevant Awards Received

- awarded as a teacher who contributed to researching the National English Aptitude Test (NEAT) by Korean Ministry of Education, February 2012
- chosen as a teacher who was sponsored by Gyeonggido (Kyunggido) Office of Education for studying abroad for two years in 2011
- awarded as a teacher who played a crucial role in managing English Performance Test Homepage by Gyeonggido Office of Education, December 2000
- awarded as the best teacher of Gyeonggido Office of Education in the teaching contest, December 1996

Professional Development

- will attend 2013CoTESOL and present about Integrative Teaching Methods Using Movie Films (November 2013)
- completed Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR) training at CSU (August 2013)
- attended Workshop on Plagiarism sponsored by CSU (May 2013)
- observed the CSU IEP reading, speaking, listening classes of all levels and completed reflections on each observation (January - November 2012)
- attended 2012 CoTESOL conference in Denver and attended presentations on Six principles for Teaching Grammar and Writing, The Future of ELL Assessment, Video Clips for Writing Practice, and Classroom management (November 2012)
- completed Human Research Protection training at CSU (May, 2012)
- attended Summer Conference on Learning, Teaching and Critical Thinking hosted by the Institute for Learning and Teaching (May 2012)
- awarded Certificate of TESOL offered by Sookmyung Women's University in cooperation with the University of Maryland, Baltimore County, U.S.A. (January 2009)
- presented a teaching method using songs at KoTESOL and chosen as a representative speaker for IATEFL (International Association of Teachers of English as a Foreign Language) seminar held in England in 1998. The presentation title is "A Way for the Long-Term Memory Using Songs" (July 1997)

Community Involvement

- involved in INTO-CSU orientation; assisted with AE, GE and Pathway program orientation Fall 2013 semester as an Internship course (August - December 2013)
- presented the Korean Language and Korean education system at the Poudre River Main library for Fort Collins International Center (FCIC) International Night; provided an opportunity to interact with those who are interested in Korea to learn about and discuss Korean education (May 2013)
- presented the Korean Language (Hangeul) and taught some basic Korean language during TEFL/TESL Advocacy Week (April 2013)
- volunteered for Conversation Partner at AEP CSU and contributed to AEP ESL learners' practical English competence (Spring, Summer, Fall sessions 2012)

Computer Skills

- Microsoft Word
- Microsoft Excel
- Microsoft Publisher
- Microsoft Power Point
- Windows Live Movie Maker